Celebrating Community Spirit: The Inspiring Service of Lorie Rheams

In the heart of Orangevale, California, a story of unwavering community service and dedication unfolds, embodied by Lorie Rheams and her husband, Russ. Their tireless efforts have not gone unnoticed, as the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) honored Lorie on May 11 for her significant contributions to the local community.

For 17 years, the Rheams have been the driving force behind the distribution of Christmas baskets to families in need at Divine Savior Catholic Church. In December 2023 alone, they managed to bring holiday cheer to 43 families, showcasing their commitment to spreading joy and support to those around them.

Lorie's humility shines through her work. There's such an incredible need and so many ways in which all of us can help our community," she shared. Her gratitude extends to her husband, Russ, who is her steadfast partner in service, and to the members of Divine Savior and the Orangevale Rotary Club, who have supported their vision of living a life dedicated to others.

Beyond the festive season, Lorie has led a clothing collection program for the Underground Clothing Connection store located in the Citrus Heights Sunrise Mall. This initiative supports young adults and children in need, providing them with essential clothing items. Lorie emphasized the ongoing need for volunteer support to ensure the store continues to serve as a vital resource for the community.

The Underground Clothing Connection is a testament to the power of community partnerships, involving the Citrus Heights Homeless Assistance Resource Team (HART), Sunrise Mall, the San Juan Unified School District (SJUSD), and Sunrise MarketPlace (SMP). This collaboration has created a free clothing store that serves students and their families from SJUSD, accessible through school referrals.

Lorie's call to action is clear: the Underground needs not only clothing donations but also dedicated volunteers to ensure its continued success. This store is an invaluable resource, and with the community's support, it can continue to serve those who rely on it.

Lorie's community involvement doesn't stop there. When her church began hosting a community meal feeding over 100 people monthly, she stepped up as a cook and later as the kitchen manager. Her initiative to coordinate donations of books from yard sales to local libraries further demonstrates her commitment to enriching the community.

The story of Lorie Rheams is a beacon of inspiration, highlighting the impact one individual can have on the lives of many. It's a reminder that service to others is not just an act, but a way of life that can transform communities and foster a spirit of generosity and support. As we celebrate Lorie's achievements, we are reminded of the power of community and the difference we can all make through acts of kindness and dedication.

To contribute to The Underground Clothing Connection, whether through volunteering or donations, you can reach out to the Underground Clothing Connection at 916-952-9797 or via email at TheUnderGround444@gmail.com.

COMMUNITY CONNECTION

Informing, Empowering and Engaging Readers with Their Community

ORANGEVALE COMMUNITY COUNCIL STRENGTHENS COMMUNITY COLLABORATION, INVITES ATTENDEES

“Communities are stronger when their leaders are connected,” often states Brad Squires, founder of the Orangevale Fair Oaks Community Foundation and Orangevale Fair Oaks Food Bank. He invites community leaders and residents to strengthen their community by connecting monthly at an informal community meeting known as the Orangevale Community Council.

The council meets the second Friday of each month at 9:00am in the Orangevale Chamber of Commerce offices located at the corner of Hazel Avenue and Greenback Lane. In round table style, community leaders and interested residents share what their individual group is working to accomplish in the community, then answer one of Squire’s favorite questions: How can we make this successful? Together.

The OCC broadly invites all community leaders. The more leaders connecting through the council, the stronger the community will be. Currently many non-profit, civic and service clubs, community services such as the Orangevale library and parks and recreation district, and elected official’s staff regularly attend, with fewer attending from local churches and schools. Invitation is always open. “We’d love to have a few residents also come regularly,” invites Squires. “Their perspective and ideas are valuable to the group.” They are, after all, those the council works to serve.

Since fall of 2018, the OCC has helped individual ideas from individual groups meet a larger community of brainstorming and resources, bringing those ideas to life in greater ways.

The Orangevale History Project is a great example. “Those first meetings provided the opportunity to evaluate and visualize what the community was missing and how to support it,” says Marilyn Edwards, past president of the Orangevale Woman’s Club. “As we were reminiscing, one of those missing things was our history. How could we keep it? Who would gather it? The Woman’s Club stepped up, the council gathered round it and the History Project was born.”

Tom Carden, who oversees the Orangevale Fair Oaks Big Day of Service projects, adds “We’ve truly benefited from these monthly gatherings. Projects, community spirit, purpose and needs are all catalysts that bring ideas together.”

And for this interested resident, a self-commissioned volunteer writer and community advocate, attending the OCC opened awareness and deep gratitude for the collaboration that makes our communities thrive. It’s reaffirmed that volunteers and community groups are the backbone of a thriving community. Especially unincorporated ones with no central ‘city’ leadership. Gatherings like the OCC fill that void.

It also inspired this column—Community Connections. Look here for monthly articles helping you connect and engage with your community in more meaningful ways, highlighting organizations with what they do, who they serve and how to get involved. Find the part of the community you are passionate about.

Until then, come get an in person overview and share your ideas at the Orangevale Community Council. You’ll be surprised how many opportunities can be discovered with just one visit.

HELP SAVE A LIVE IN OUR COMMUNITY MAKE AN APPOINTMENT TO GIVE BLOOD JUNE 27

It is said that blood is one of the most priceless gifts one can give to another. It’s also a gift that can be given more than once. To keep those lifesaving opportunities going, Vitalant Blood Donation seeks places to regularly host blood drives. On Thursday, June 27 from 2:30pm to 6pm the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints at 7009 Van Maren Lane in Citrus Heights, is answering the call with one of its quarterly states the Vitalant website. Every donation is needed. Every donation counts.

“The awareness of need has declined a great deal since Covid when medical needs were on everyone’s mind,” says Mike Petterborg, a church volunteer helping organize this event. “We hope to bring in 30 units of blood at each drive, and more often bring in 20.”

To schedule an online appointment, go to donors.vitalant.org blood drives.

Residents of Orangevale are invited to join residents of Citrus Heights at this lifesaving event. 30,000 blood donations are needed every day to support patients in hospitals across the United States, ant.org and use blood drive code SMFR048, call Vitalant at 877-258-4825, or scan the QR code below. While blood donation appointments are encouraged, walk-ins are welcome and accommodated if space allows. The donation process takes about one hour. The actual blood donation takes six to eight minutes.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Donors with type O, A- or B- blood can double the impact of their donation with an extra 30 minutes time, by making a Power Red double red cell donation. A machine separates and collects two units of red cells and then safely returns the remaining blood components, along with some saline, back to the donor. There are other benefits to the donor also: a smaller needle is used, and most donors feel more hydrated thereafter.

While super red donations help meet the greatest blood donation need, standard whole blood donations are also vital. Whole blood contains all the blood components hospitals will use: red cells to replace blood during surgeries, platelets to support patients with severe burns or blood loss and plasma to give strength to patients undergoing chemotherapy, among other things.

"Because of you, life doesn't stop," says the Vitalant website. The invitation for community organizations to host blood drives at their location is always open. Join the lifesaving efforts of Vitalant and the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints by registering to host a blood drive at www.vitalant.org/host-a-blood-drive, or by donating blood on June 27. KEEP OV NICE!

On Monday, 5/20/24, after driving many times past the weed-filled 7/11 landscape to work, I finally called the business number for 7/11 Headquarters. They urged us to tell the staff at this location about our lack of content with how they are letting the weeds grow. The helpful phone representative also said he would be contacting the owner/manager to find out why the weeds are growing and creating an eyesore. Call 1-800-255-0711 and also tell the staff the place looks awful. Keep OV nice!

FORGOTTEN WONDER OF ORANGEVALE

Presentation by Mark Aring

Mark began by reading an article written by Daphne Dean in 1893 which appeared in the Folsom Telegraph about a place called Fern Glen. It is first mentioned when the Orangevale Colonization Company were selling tracts in 1890. The Glen could be seen from The Villa, the sales office/hotel for the Colonization Company) on the bluffs overlooking The Glen was the American River. The area was described as a wonderful place to visit, play and picnic.

In 1893 it was used by the company in an advertisement promoting the Colony. A photograph of a suspension bridge over the American River with the ferns of the glen under it. The Glen was immensely popular and often visited at the time Greenback Lane ended at the Glen.

A timeline of visits to the Glen is documented by news articles until 1937. In 1894 a path was created from the Villa to the Glen. People visited; children played while picnicking from other areas. It was described in glowing terms, with ferns and trees providing shade. The area provided a cool environment from the heat during the summer.

In 1937, there was a Big Day of Service and folks from the Orangevale Grange and Women's Club cleaned the trash from the area. A map in 1925 reveals a wide ravine quite deep in the area. In 1951, Greenback Lane was built and filled over the ferns of the glen. This was done by using dirt being displaced by the building of the Folsom Dm. A bridge no longer required by 1961 The Glen of Ferns vanished under the dirt. Now it is just a memory.

If you travel east along Orangevale Avenue, at the bridge and look right. You are viewing the top of Fern Glen which can no longer be accessed. Looking closely, you may see a fern trying to survive.

Recorded by Hilda Hawkins

Orangevale History Project normally meets the first Wednesday of each month. No meeting in July but will celebrate the first-year anniversary of the Orangevale History Museum on July 13th at 6920 Hazel Ave with a free community Ice Cream Social from 3pm – 5pm with the museum open 12 pm-5pm.

Supervisor Sue Frost

Judicial Restraints Lifted? Supreme Court to Rule on Local Authority in Camp Cleanup By Sue Frost

I often consider the age-old concept of "the carrot and the stick," which embodies the balance between enforcement and support—a theme that frequently comes up in discussions about how we govern and regulate the homeless community. This balance is crucial but often mishandled by government policies. The City of Grants Pass v. Johnson case, recently argued before the U.S. Supreme Court, marks a pivotal moment in our approach to homelessness. It prompts us to reevaluate the effectiveness of past policies that have, in many ways, worsened the problem rather than solved it.

For too long, court rulings like the 2018 decision in Martin v. Boise have handcuffed local governments, preventing them from enforcing anti-camping ordinances that are essential for maintaining public order and safety. These legal constraints have allowed encampments to proliferate, contributing to crime, environmental damage, and public health crises, including the spread of diseases and increased drug overdoses right on our streets.

The oral arguments at the Supreme Court indicate a potential shift that could empower local authorities to regain control over this spiraling issue. If the Court sides with Grants Pass, it could mark an end to the era where local officials' hands are tied by overly permissive legal interpretations. This change is crucial; it's about restoring the rule of law in our communities while addressing the humanitarian crisis of homelessness with more than just temporary fixes.

Some politicians and their activist allies argue that enforcing anti-camping laws is inhumane for those without alternatives. Yet, this view overlooks the true cruelty of letting people live in dangerous and unhealthy conditions. It's not merely about clearing tents from the streets; it's about eliminating obstacles to more effective solutions, including mental health services, addiction treatment, and suitable housing for our most vulnerable residents.

The harsh reality is that the current approach has not only failed our homeless population, it has also ignored the rights and needs of the broader community. Residents and businesses bear the brunt of the consequences, from depreciating property values to safety concerns. It's clear that a shift towards more balanced policies is overdue. We need policies that ensure compassion does not cripple our communities, but rather strengthens them.

As we await the Supreme Court's decision, which is expected in June, it's time for local leaders to prepare to act decisively. We should be ready to implement a dual approach that enhances enforcement to clear hazardous encampments and increases support through proven rehabilitation and mental health programs. This isn't just about taking back control of our streets; it's about taking responsible steps to provide real solutions that address both the symptoms and root causes of homelessness.

Thank you for Reading – and as always if you want to contact me, call me at 916-874-5491, or e-mail me at SupervisorFrost@saccounty.gov. Sacramento County Supervisor Sue Frost represents the 4th District, which includes the communities of Citrus Heights, Folsom, Orangevale, Antelope, North Highlands, Rio Linda, Elverta, and Rancho Murieta.

Suzanne Feblowitz

It is almost summer, so I found a great recipe for an easy summer dinner. I am trying to find recipes that will help you spend less at the grocery store. This recipe will replace all those pre-packaged tri-tips that you can find at the big box stores. You do not need to spend extra money on prepackaged tri-tip because you can make this at home! It is quick to make, easy and delicious!

We would love some new recipes, so if you have any recipes, please send them to Suzanne Feblowitz at the Orangevale View (editor@ov-view.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email address in case we need to contact you. If you wish to remain anonymous, just let us know and we will omit your name

JAN'S TRI-TIP MARINADE
Tri-tip roast (1 ½ to 2 lbs)

2/3 can of your favorite beer
½ cup soy sauce
3 cloves garlic, minced

¼ cup onion, chopped
½ teaspoon sugar
Mix marinade ingredients together in bowl. Trim extra fat off the roast. Place the roast in a gallon zip baggie and pour the marinade over the roast. Put the baggie in a baking dish to prevent leakage into your refrigerator. Marinate for 1-2 days. Turn baggie over several times during the marinade time, so the liquid gets on all sides of the roast.
Grill until done. Enjoy!

ORANGEVALE COMMUNITY PARK

ORANGEVALE'S Summer Palooza

CARNIVAL RIDES & GAMES • MUSIC • FOOD

JUNE 14-16

WELCOME.....

The Orangevale Summer Palooza is a vibrant tapestry of community spirit and celebration, weaving together the cherished traditions of yesteryears with the fresh zest of new experiences. The Palooza opens its arms wide, inviting one and all to partake in the tradition. The air buzzes with anticipation for the beloved Parade, a spectacle of color and camaraderie that marks the commencement of festivities. Children's laughter rings through the Orangevale Parks Kids Zone, a haven of fun where youthful energy is met with endless amusement.

This year's Palooza promises to tantalize the senses with the introduction of the Power Wheel Derby, a thrilling race that sets the heart racing as swiftly as the wheels turn for kids ages 3-10 yrs. old. The Summer Savor event stands as a taste to the finer things in life, offering a symphony of flavors were wine food and music dance in harmonious union. The Cornhole Tournament, a new Sunday tradition, beckons the competitive spirit, turning friends and neighbors into playful rivals under the sun's watchful eye.

Music is the soul of the Palooza, and the L&M Stage is the heart from which it beats. The Rod Stinson Band and Island of Black and White set the stage alight with their positive vibrations, infusing the night with melodies that resonate with hope and happiness. As Saturday unfurls, the soundscape shifts to a rich blend of Southern Rock, Country, and the soulful strains of Blues and Newgrass. The lineup is a mosaic of talent, featuring the homespun harmonies of Lo-Fi Lown Down, Rekindled Band, recording artist Elana Jane, the fiery energy of Guilty as Charged, and featuring North Forty- a husband and wife team LG Hyatt & Allison Hyatt and Nashville recording artist and Grass Valley native Kerina Kinch

Culinary adventurers will find themselves on a delectable journey at the Palooza, with a smorgasbord of local traveling cuisine that caters to every palate; Cousins Maine Lobster, My Lumpia Lady, Bangin Bowls, Bussin Buns, Bubble Hive, PlusAloha and Authentic Taco and for dessert or any time Kona Ice, Carnival Food Trailer, Late Mouse Coffee, The Slush Shack, Bangin Churro Bar, and Baby Cakes.

Amidst the whirlwind of excitement, the full carnival by Butler Amusement stands as a beacon of thrill, its rides a symbol of the carefree joy that defines the Palooza. But beyond the fun and games, the event is a pillar of support for the community, benefiting Women Veterans Giving, Youth Sports Organizations, and various non-profit groups. It is a reminder that the heart of Orangevale is its people, and the Palooza is a reflection of their unity and strength. As the community comes together to celebrate, support, and savor the moments that make life sweet, the Orangevale Summer Palooza continues to be a shining example of what it means to be a community. It is more than just an event; it is a legacy of togetherness, a tradition that will continue to flourish with each passing year.

On behalf of the whole All Events Team, volunteers and sponsors we hope you enjoy your time at the 2024 Summer Palooza.

Kindly,
Lisa Montes -Event Producer

Orangevale Chamber of Commerce Business Spotlight:

ALTHEA CANINES

By: MaryAnne Povey

When it comes to pets there's a special bond we hold dear to our hearts because of the unconditional love we get from them. And from love - good things happen! Althea Canines, is a non-profit that was born between two friends over a plate of tater tots with a vision to connect service dogs with people struggling with mental health and psychiatric disabilities.

The story behind Althea Canines is one of passion, perseverance, and personal experience. Shannon Kane always had a deep love for Labrador Retrievers. Her earliest memories are filled with joy from these loyal companions. It was this love that inspired her to breed and train dogs from 1992.

However, Shannon's journey took on new meaning in 2018 when she faced her own personal struggles. It was during this difficult time that her own Labrador, a service dog in training, became her lifeline. Through the support of her furry companion, she found renewed purpose and determination.

In 2023, Shannon and her friend, Amy Wolfe, created a non-profit with their shared vision of creating a place where everyone could access train services to meet the unique needs of each individual.

Realizing the cost to train a service dog was prohibitive to many, Shannon and Amy quickly learned that it wasn't just about training the dogs but helping provide the financial support needed to acquire one.

Shannon established an organization that would provide support and companionship to those in need. "Willow Kane Farm Labrador Retriever" 501(c)3 nonprofit was born, laying the groundwork for what would become Althea Canines.

"We provide full and partial grants for those who need it most," said Shannon, "including military veterans, first responders, and civilians struggling with mental health and psychiatric disabilities."

In a world where resources can be scarce, this commitment and support is truly exceptional. As a volunteer based non-profit, they offer obedience classes from puppy to adult dogs for the public at several Pet Food Express locations. Through this training, proceeds are raised for their programs, along with donations and grants from the community. All that is raised is 100 percent back into the program.

"Our goal is to see that every fire station, police station, EMS Dispatch Center, school and senior facility that wants a dog - gets a dog," said Amy, "The payback is what you might call 'priceless'."

"Everytime we do puppy visits, we'll hear, 'best day ever', or 'we need a dog in the office every day,'" said Amy, "With the love and support of a dog, great things can happen!"

Today, Shannon, Amy, and their dedicated team continue to honor their mission, transforming lives one wagging tail at a time. For more information, go to www.altheacanines.org the healing power of service dogs, regardless of their financial means. Believe it or not, the average service dog cost is $50,000!

With a mission offering service and facility dog training for a range of disabilities, including mobility issues, autism, and mental health conditions, they also offer a variety of owner

PUBLIC NOTICE

A RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE ORANGEVALE RECREATION AND PARK DISTRICT APPROVING THE RESOLUTION OF INTENTION TO LEVY ASSESSMENTS FOR FISCAL YEAR 2024-25, PRELIMINARILY APPROVING THE ENGINEER'S REPORT AND PROVIDING FOR NOTICE OF HEARING FOR THE ORANGEVALE LANDSCAPING AND LIGHTING ASSESSMENT DISTRICT (OLLAD)

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors (the "Board") of the Orangevale Recreation and Park District, County of Sacramento, State of California, has previously ordered through Resolution 92-06-51 the formation of an assessment district pursuant to the provisions of the Landscaping and Lighting Act of 1972 for the purpose of financing certain park and recreation improvements and refurbishments as specified in the District's updated Master Plan and for the purpose of funding maintenance operations of the District; and

WHEREAS, the Board, through Resolution 92-06-51, has ordered that the park and recreation improvements specified in the Engineer's Report dated March 26, 1992, be constructed, and has estimated that the cost of such proposed park and recreation improvements is greater than can be raised from a single annual assessment, and has ordered that the estimated costs of these improvements be raised by an assessment levied and collected in annual installments over a period of 20 years, commencing in fiscal year 1992-93 and ending in fiscal year 2012-13 and then continued from year to year as necessary to fund other capital, maintenance and other needs;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Directors of the Orangevale Recreation and Park District, County of Sacramento, State of California, that:

1. On July 17, 1991, by its Resolution No. 816, this Board ordered the formation of and levied the first assessment within the Orangevale Recreation and Park District Maintenance Assessment District 1991 (the "Assessment District") pursuant to the provisions of the Landscaping and Lighting Act of 1972.

2. On February 15, 2024 this Board adopted Resolution No. 24-02-716, A Resolution Directing Preparation of the 2024-25 Annual Report for the Orangevale Recreation and Park District Maintenance Assessment District. Pursuant to this resolution, SCI Consulting Group, the Engineer of Work, prepared a report in accordance with Article XIII of the California Constitution and Section 22565, et seq., of the California Streets and Highways Code (the "Report"). The Report has been made, filed with the Clerk of the Board and duly considered by the Board and is hereby deemed sufficient and preliminarily approved. The Report shall stand as the Engineer's Report for all subsequent proceedings under and pursuant to the foregoing resolution.

3. It is the intention of this Board to levy and collect assessments within the Assessment District for fiscal year 2024-25. Within the Assessment District, the existing and proposed improvements, and any substantial changes proposed to be made to the existing improvements, are generally described as installation, maintenance and servicing of public recreational facilities and improvements, including, but not limited to, turf and play areas, landscaping, ground cover, shrubs and trees, irrigation systems, drainage systems, lighting, fencing, entry monuments, basketball courts, tennis courts, gymnasium, running tracks, swimming pools, other recreational facilities, security patrols to protect the Improvements, graffiti removal and repainting, and labor, materials, supplies, utilities and equipment, as applicable, at each of the locations owned, operated or maintained by the Orangevale Recreation and Park District.

4. The Assessment District consists of the lots and parcels shown on the boundary map of the Assessment District on file with the Clerk of the Board of the Orangevale Recreation and Park District, and reference is hereby made to such map for further particulars.

5. Reference is hereby made to the Engineer's Report for a full and detailed description of the improvements, the boundaries of the Assessment District and the proposed assessments upon assessable lots and parcels of land within the Assessment District. The Engineer's Report identifies all parcels which will have a special benefit conferred upon them and upon which an assessment will be imposed.

6. The assessments are not proposed to increase from the previous year's assessments. The Board of Directors declares its intent to levy and collect assessments for the fiscal year 2024-25 within said district at an assessment rate of $3.50 per month or $42.00 per year per single family residential parcel, apartment unit and/or condominium; a lower rate of $3.08 per month or $36.96 per year per each mobile home unit or per one-quarter acre parcel devoted to commercial use; and a rate of $1.40 per month or $16.80 per year per one-quarter acre for parcels devoted to industrial or mini storage use, all as set forth in the benefit chart included in the Engineer's Report.

7. Notice is hereby given that on June 20, 2024, at the hour of 6:30 p.m. at the District offices of the Orangevale Recreation and Park District, 6826 Hazel Avenue, California 95662, the Board will hold a public hearing to consider the ordering of the improvements and the levy of the proposed assessments.

8. Prior to the conclusion of the hearing, any interested person may file a written protest with the Clerk of the Board, or, having previously filed a protest, may file a written withdrawal of that protest. A written protest shall state all grounds of objection. A protest by a property owner shall contain a description sufficient to identify the property owned by such owner. Such protest or withdrawal of protest should be mailed to the Orangevale Recreation and Park District, 6826 Hazel Avenue, California 95662.

9. The Clerk of the Board shall cause a notice of the hearing to be given by publishing a copy of this resolution once, at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the hearing above specified, in a newspaper circulated in the Orangevale Recreation and Park District.
