ORANGEVALE HISTORY MUSEUM CELEBRATES 1ST YEAR -PAGE 6

In a delightful display of community spirit and collaboration, the Orangevale Grange, under the leadership of President Luke Vonderohe, owner of White Dog Farm, took to the streets with a float crafted by the Casa Roble FFA. This float not only highlighted the talents and dedication of the FFA students but also featured the animals they care for, symbolizing the hands-on learning that is central to the program. The Grange's commitment to supporting local FFA initiatives was recognized with a Red White & Blue Parade first-place ribbon for Service Group, a testament to their impactful partnership. - Photo by Heidi Lettau

The vibrant spirit of Orangevale was on full display as the Summer Palooza 2024 wrapped up, leaving behind a trail of joy and community spirit. The carnival may have moved on, but the echoes of laughter and music linger in the now quiet soccer fields and walkways. The Father's Day weekend was a spectacular showcase of local culture, with an array of local food, vendors, and entertainment that spanned three glorious days. The parade, a highlight of the festivities, was a resounding success, doubling in size from the previous year, a testament to the event's growing popularity.

In a time when small-town festivals are dwindling, the Orangevale Summer Palooza stands as a beacon of hope and resilience. Defying economic challenges that have seen many long-standing events succumb, the OVSP is set to return in 2025, riding on the wave of this year's triumph. This success is not just a stroke of luck but the fruit of the unique bond within the Orangevale community. Local businesses and organizations rallied together, pouring their hearts into ensuring that the tradition of gathering and celebration not only endured but flourish.

Sponsors like Derek Maldonado of L&M Liquor and Deli recognizes the mutual benefits these events offer. Maldonado says "Community events are a cornerstone for local business growth and customer engagement. By supporting local events, businesses not only gain visibility but also contribute to the economic vitality of their area, fostering a sense of community and shared success."

Lisa Montes, the driving force behind All Events Management Group and the Palooza, emphasizes the importance of ongoing support for those who contribute to the community's vibrancy. The event's conclusion is not an end but a reminder to continue patronizing and appreciating the sponsors and volunteers throughout the year. Montes eloquently puts it, "It's a circle of support. Without these partnerships, there would be no Summer Palooza." This symbiotic relationship between consumers and businesses is the cornerstone of community events, highlighting the need for mutual support and care.

As we look forward to the next Orangevale Summer Palooza, let's carry the spirit of this year's festival in our hearts. Let's remember that every ticket purchased, every meal enjoyed, and every cheer shared contributes to the support of our community. Here's to the people of Orangevale, who have shown that even in the face of odds, unity and community spirit can create a celebration that resonates with warmth and joy long after the last tent has been folded away.

Mark your calendars for Father's Day weekend, June 13-15, 2025, and join in the festivities that make Orangevale shine. Keep an eye on the Orangevale Summer Palooza Facebook page for a glimpse of the joy and camaraderie captured in photos by Heidi Lettau, Jayden Velasquez, Summer Frosh, and Matt Lettau, with videos provided by Orangevale Live and Hi Fire Media. As the details of the 2025 Summer Palooza unfold, stay updated by visiting the official website www.ovsummerpalooza.com. This is more than just a festival; it's a showcase of the vibrant community spirit that makes Orangevale a special place to live, work, and celebrate. See you there!

Addressing a Mistake with Sincerity and Commitment to Improvement

In the fast-paced world of publishing, where every detail counts, it's with a heavy heart that we acknowledge a recent oversight in our last edition. A photograph on the front page in our last issue, was mistakenly attributed. The credit, which holds significant value, should have rightfully gone to Cathy Kurtz, a dedicated local photographer whose volunteer work has not only enriched our content but has also been a testament to the spirit of community collaboration.

We deeply appreciate the trust and contributions of our community members, who provide not just articles and information, but also the visual narratives that bring our words to life. It is through their lens that we can connect more profoundly with our readership. We understand the importance of recognizing each contributor's generosity, and the error made was not in line with our values of gratitude and respect.

To Cathy Kurtz, we extend our sincerest apologies and our heartfelt thanks for your understanding. To our readers and contributors, we are actively implementing measures to ensure such an oversight does not recur. We are reviewing our editorial processes to safeguard the integrity of our acknowledgments and to honor the work of all who support us.

Mistakes, while regrettable, offer valuable lessons and a chance for growth. We are committed to learning from this experience and to upholding the standards of excellence that our community deserves. We hope for your continued support and understanding as we strive to not only correct our course but to set a new benchmark for accountability and precision in our work.

Thank you for your patience and for standing with us as we navigate these waters. Your support is the cornerstone of our publication, and we are dedicated to maintaining the trust you've placed in us.

Kindly,

TWIN LAKES RIDING CLUB OF ORANGEVALE

On November 1, 1961, seven interested families from the Orangevale area joined together to become Charter members of the Twin Lakes Riding Club. They immediately started enjoying activities with a trail ride and picnic lunch on November 5th followed by a Gymkhana show at a member's home on November 12th. Their next activity was a dance for the members on December 8th. Various other activities took place the following year.

In December of 1962 that year the club members banded together with other horse people and livestock owners to appear before the County Planning Commissioners to protest rezoning of some 30 square miles of Northern Sacramento County. The proposed zoning would have changed most of Fair Oaks, Citrus Heights, and Orangevale from agricultural to residential status.

Over the next few years, the club participated in many parades and in Orangevale's "Fiesta Days" Celebrations. In 1964, the Club leased land from Mr. and Mrs. Glen Felion for $1.00 per year and proceeded to build an arena with volunteer labor from the TLRC members. The membership by this time was over 40 families. The arena was located across Excelsior from the present location. Their first actual horse show was on April 16th of that year and over 200 people turned out to watch the show.

In 1965 the club was going strong. They then built a snack shack and bleachers; purchased a duplicating machine and started publishing a monthly newspaper; built "his" and "hers" portables; bought hoses and water sprinklers; installed arena lights for night practice and shows; built a sign-up booth; and leased parking area on their present arena sight for about 60 trailers. This same year, the Club had their first overnight barbecue trail ride in Grass Valley (enjoyed by 75 members). The highlight trail ride of the year began with a week-long vacation at Wright's Lake.

By July of 1966, the membership had grown to 94 families. In 1967 they had crowned the TLRC Queen and formed a Color Guard for Governor's Night at the State Horse show. In 1969, Orangevale changed "Fiesta Days" to "Pow Wow Days" and TLRC sponsored a 2-day horse show. The Club also purchased the ground where their present arena and facilities are currently located. In 1970, Broom Polo was introduced to the club along with the first trail ride to Sand 'N' Surf in San Francisco.

Horse shows, trail rides, dances, family fun days, dinners, picnics and parades are some of their activities to this day.

The general meetings for the Club are held on the first Wednesday of each month. In the winter months the meetings are currently held at the Orangevale Library. During the rest of the year the meetings are held outdoors at their arena location.

The Club has arena rules, a Constitution and By-Laws that each member is furnished with and made aware of. Each new member family attends three meetings before being voted into the club by the membership at a regular general meeting. An initiation fee is paid along with annual dues which can be paid annually or semi-annually. The initiation fee is paid only once unless you drop your membership and later return.

Initially, for parades the club voted to wear dark blue jeans, white hats, white shirts, red ties and white blankets on the horses trimmed with red tassels. Later, red vests with silver studs were added to the costume. A contest was held to design a decal the club now uses on the sides of their trailers and trucks with a lovely picture of a horse head and the club's name.

The Club membership had been as high as 165 families and as low as 34 families. The club activities provide an interesting calendar for the entire year. Horse shows and trail rides are normally held during the spring, summer, and fall. During the winter activities are strictly social events for the members. The club strives to be fair and just always!!

First Horse Shows 1958-1961 By Mary Ann Moore's daughter of Jack Moore, former Orangevale Residents

I listened to interviews with TLRC members, and they did not know where the first arenas for the horse shows were held. The first show was on Mountain Ave in a section of a pasture. The man had acreage and he let them use the area. It had no fences. The second show was at the dead end of Hickory heading north. No road to it, they just took the fence down and drove over the culvert. The third arena was behind Jane Falting not a vast area, toward the church and they held several shows. She believes she later sold the land to the riding club.

Does anyone remember these properties before the club was officially formed. Her parents were Jak and Eloie Moore who started the Pow Wow Days and owned several businesses in Orangevale. He felt the children needed a place to show and ride their horses.

The Orangevale History Project is not meeting in July but join us Saturday July 13 at the Celebration of Our First Anniversary of the Museum from 3pm to 5pm at the Ice Cream Social at 6920 Hazel Ave. Keep watching the YouTube channel for the community interviews and monthly presentations.

ORANGEVALE HISTORY MUSEUM CELEBRATES 1ST YEAR!

Newly formed in early 2022, the Orangevale History Project (OHP) has a mission to preserve, chronicle and promote the history of Orangevale, and to educate our community. Come Spring of 2023, the Orangevale Recreation & Park District provided a building and our generous community provided the labor and donations to help transform a small parsonage house into its first History Museum that opened in July, 2023.

OHP has been assembling materials for long-term preservation and the documentation of Orangevale history. Both the Fowler Family and Mary Henter have added to their family collections which will be on exhibit to provide a more complete picture of what it was like to live in this northern part of Sacramento County.

One of our new exhibitions features items used in the home – for work, play, food preparation and because you just got to have shoes. Visitors can also see fruit packing crates, a vintage record player, and albums.

Throughout the first year, OHP has also sought to document the business history of the area. With that in mind, OHP is working with the owners of The Boardwalk, Sara Green and Derek Clark, to showcase the dynamic story of this musical venue.

Come join us to celebrate the Museum's first anniversary at our free Ice Cream Social at the Orangevale History Museum to be held Saturday, July 13, 2024, from 3-5pm. There will be new exhibits showing Orangevale's history, two interactive touchscreens, a gift shop, music and fun with a trivia game! The Museum is located at 6920 Hazel Avenue, just north of the Orangevale Community Center. Turn right into the driveway through the gate and continue to the far-right building. The free admission Museum is open Tues, Thurs, and Sat from 12-4pm, except for it being closed on July 4th and 11th. To learn more about OHP and the Museum, visit our website at Orangevale-History.org.

ORANGEVALE COOKS BY Suzanne Feblowitz

It is officially summer! With the 4th of July around the corner, you may be wondering what to serve for your celebration. I have the perfect recipe for a side dish! My sister, Sally, whipped up this dish for our Father's Day meal last week. It was so yummy and I didn't even realize that the green was kale! We would love some new recipes, so if you have any recipes, please send them to Suzanne Feblowitz at the Orangevale View (editor@ovview.com). Be sure to include your phone number or email address in case we need to contact you. If you wish to remain anonymous, just let us know and we will omit your name

SALLY'S PASTA SALAD

1 lb. Bowtie Pasta
1/3 cup pine nuts
1/4 cup olive oil
6 cloves garlic, minced
1/2 tsp salt
1/2 tsp pepper
1 bunch kale, chop into bite sized pieces
4 oz parmesan cheese, shaved
2 TBSP balsamic vinegar (optional)

(The pine nuts, salt, pepper, parmesan cheese and vinegar can be adjusted to your taste)

Cook pasta according to package directions. Drain, rinse with cold water, and add to a large bowl. Set aside.

Add pine nuts to a small skillet over low heat. Toast slowly over the course of 5-10 minutes, tossing regularly until lightly browned on all sides. You must keep an eye on this because they are easy to burn. Remove from the skillet and set aside.

In a large skillet, heat olive oil and garlic over low heat so that the garlic slowly infuses the oil. When the oil starts to cause the garlic to sizzle, stir around so the garlic doesn't get too brown. When garlic starts to turn golden, add salt and pepper, stir, and set aside for 5 minutes

After 5 minutes, pour the oil mixture (scraping the salt, pepper, and garlic) all over the bowtie pasta. Toss to combine and set aside.

Set the same skillet (without cleaning it) over medium-high heat. Add the kale and cook for 5 minutes, or until partly wilted.

Add kale and pine nuts to the pasta and toss it all together. Check to make sure it's no longer warm, then add Parmesan shavings and toss. If you would like to add vinegar, add here. Taste for seasonings and add more salt and pepper if needed.

Chill for at least 2 hours before serving. Serves 12. Makes great leftovers!

TWO HUNDRED

The number 200 can be misread as zoo

(since zero looks like O, and Z could look like two).

Wild writing, wild thoughts might echo like deja vu (like sounds in kangaroo, cockatoo, caribou).

Going to a zoo could be something to do.

Its animals fascinate; folks can learn from them too.

Some might be emu, zebu, or even ewe.

Creatures at a zoo are more than a few...

What if a zoo or the first zoo had two hundred animals?

Something wild is still possible if it's imaginable...

25 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE

During the weekend of May 24-26, Aikido Yoshinkan Sacramento held a special event to celebrate its 25th anniversary. Established in June 1999 in Orangevale, the school's humble beginnings began at the former Starz Gymnastics and Preschool on Main Ave. In 2001, the school started its partnership with the Orangevale Recreation and Park District where it still resides today. This was the first such event since the Covid pandemic. Our featured guest was Mr. Jacques Payet from Kyoto, Japan, and his student Mr. Shota Sugawara from Kamakura, Japan. Joining us were also visitors from Canada, San Barbara, San Bruno, and San Diego. The event was held at our current location at the Orangevale Youth Center. In total, there were 30 participants ranging from age 8 to 70+.

The support we received from the Orangevale Recreation and Parks District and a small group of dedicated students helped us weather the shutdown brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic. Working collaboratively with OVParks we converted our training to online and when permissible used outdoor space at the OV Youth Center and OV Community Center. The school has returned to its pre-COVID numbers and is always welcoming new students.

Classes are held Tuesday and Thursday evenings and Saturday mornings at the OV Youth Center. Classes are offered for all beginning at age 7. Family classes and discounts are also available. For more information, you can visit our website at www.seikeikan.com. For registration information, please contact OVParks at 916-988-6140.

The Cibara Motor Corps, part of the Ben Ali Shrine in Sacramento, is a dedicated group that actively participates in parades and events to raise awareness for their philanthropic mission. They work tirelessly to support children in need of medical care through the Shriners Hospitals for Children, offering services in burns, orthopedics, spinal cord injuries, and cleft palate treatment at no cost to families. Their commitment to service and community is exemplified by their captain, George Wales, and their recognition as first-place winners in the Auto Category with their patriotic display. If you're aware of a child who could benefit from their assistance, reaching out to a Shriner or contacting the Sacramento Shrine Center could make a significant difference. The Casa Roble Football team, champions of last season, are gearing up for another victorious year. With a decade of experience, Coach Adam Curry, the Run Coordinator, and Coach Eric Curry, overseeing Special Teams, are at the helm, guiding the team with expertise and passion. Known for their dynamic 'ShakeN Bake' strategy, they're not just playing the game; they're redefining it. The team's spirit is as vibrant as their red, white, and blue colors, symbolized by the 1st place ribbon they proudly won. Here's to hoping their aspirations for a repeat season come true! Chestnut Nature Kids, a 501(c)(3) youth empowerment program, is making a significant impact by bridging the gap between young people and the natural world. In an age where screens often dominate our attention, this program offers a refreshing escape, allowing youth to develop a meaningful connection with nature. By engaging with the elements, flora, and fauna, participants can experience a diverse sensory environment that grows at a natural, unhurried pace. Their recognition as a first-place ribbon winner in the Novelty Category is a testament to their innovative approach to youth development and environmental education.
